Motor Vehicles Amendment Bill 2019: Insurance compensation increased 10 times from Rs 50,000 to Rs 5 lakh

New Delhi: The Rajya Sabha has cleared the Motor Vehicles (Amendment) Bill, 2019 that aims to improve road safety, facilitate citizens in their dealings with transport departments, strengthen rural transport, public transport and last mile connectivity through automation, computerization and online services. As per the new amendment, there will be a 10 time increase in insurance compensation, from Rs 50,000 to Rs 5 lakh.

Insurance firms have to pay claims within a month, if the victim's family agree to accept Rs 5 lakh compensation. The Bill also increases the minimum compensation for hit and run cases from Rs 25,000 to two lakh rupees in case of death, and from Rs 12,500 to Rs 50,000 in case of grievous injury, the Bill says. The Bill has included the driver's attendant in 3rd Party insurance. There will be no cap on liability of insurers while the claim process has been simplified. The Motor Vehicles (Amendment) Bill, 2019 is based on the recommendations of the Group of Transport Ministers (GoM) of States constituted by the Ministry of Road Transport & Highways. The Bill has been passed with three government amendments and will need to go back to Lok Sabha. The Lok Sabha had already passed the Bill on the 23rd of July 2019.

Markets open in red for 2nd day; Sensex below 37,300

New Delhi: Markets opened in red for the second day on Thursday tracking Asian shares that fell to six-week low. The BSE Sensex fell 218.95 points or 0.58 percent to 37,262.17 in early trade while the NSE Nifty was trading lower at 66.80 points or 0.60 percent to 11,051.20. Major losers in the Sensex pack are Vedanta, Tech Mahindra, HDFC, Tata Motors, Yes Bank, Tata Steel, HDFC Bank, Infosys, Heromoto Corp, Bajaj Auto, Sun Pharma and RIL, falling up to 3.18 percent. On the other hand shares of IndusInd Bank, Powergrid, HCL, TCS, ICICI Bank and Maruti were trading in green, rising up to 1.38 percent. MSCI's broadest index of Asia-Pacific shares outside Japan faltered 0.6 percent, extending losses for a fifth day to the lowest since mid-June. Japan's Nikkei reversed early losses and were a shade higher, while Australian shares declined 0.2 percent. Losses in Chinese shares accelerated after it opened lower with the blue-chip index down 0.8 percent.

Beijing orders Arabic symbols taken down from shops, eateries

BEIJING: Authorities in the Chinese capital have ordered halal restaurants and food stalls to remove Arabic script and symbols associated with Islam from their signs, part of an expanding national effort to "Sinicize" its Muslim population. Employees at 11 restaurants and shops in Beijing selling halal products and visited by Reuters in recent days said officials had told them to remove images associated with Islam, such as the crescent moon and the word "halal" written in Arabic, from signs. Government workers from various offices told one manager of a Beijing noodle shop to cover up the "halal" in Arabic on his shop's sign, and then watched him do it. "They said this is foreign culture and you should use more Chinese culture," said the manager, who, like all restaurant owners and employees who spoke to Reuters. The campaign against Arabic script and Islamic images marks a new phase of a drive that has gained momentum since 2016, aimed at ensuring religions conform with mainstream Chinese culture. The campaign has included the removal of Middle Eastern-style domes on many mosques in favour of Chinese-style pagodas.

China, home to 20 million Muslims, officially guarantees freedom of religion, but the government has campaigned to bring the faithful into line with Communist Party ideology. It was not clear if every such restaurant in Beijing has been told to cover Arabic script and Muslim symbols. One manager at a restaurant still displaying Arabic said he'd been ordered to remove it but was waiting for his new signs. Several shops replaced their signs with the Chinese term for halal — "qing zhen" — while others covered up the Arabic and Islamic imagery with tape or stickers. The government's Committee on Ethnicity and Religious Affairs declined to comment. The National Ethnic Affairs Commission also did not respond.
