POLICY ON NOMINATION AND REMUNERATION OF DIRECTORS, KEY MANAGERIAL PERSONNEL AND SENIOR MANAGEMENT

FOREWORD

A transparent, fair and reasonable process for selection of directors, key managerial personnel and senior management and appropriate remuneration at all levels of the Company is required to ensure that Shareholders remain informed and confident in the management of the Company. The Company also understands the importance of attracting and maintaining high quality individuals for managing its affairs from directors level right through to support staff.

In pursuance of the Company's policy to consider human resources as its invaluable assets, to pay equitable remuneration to all Directors, Key Managerial Personnel (KMP) and Senior employees of the Company, to harmonize the aspirations of human resources consistent with the goals of the Company and in terms of the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and the listing agreement as amended from time to time this policy on nomination and remuneration of Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management has been formulated by the Committee and approved by the Board of Directors.

REGULATORY BACKGROUND

As per revised clause 49 of listing agreement and section 178 of the Companies Act, 2013 the Board of Directors of every listed company shall constitute a Nomination and Remuneration Committee and the role of the committee shall, inter-alia, include the following:

1. Formulation of the criteria for determining qualifications, positive attributes and independence of a director and recommend to the Board a policy, relating to the remuneration of the directors, key managerial personnel and other senior management employees;
2. Formulation of criterion for evaluation Directors performance on the Board and also the performance of the Board as a whole.
3. Devising a policy on Board diversity;
4. Identifying persons who are qualified to become directors and who may be appointed in senior management in accordance with the criteria laid down, and recommend to the Board their appointment and removal. The company shall disclose the remuneration policy and the evaluation criteria in its Annual Report.

Section 178 (4) of the Companies Act, 2013 stipulates that while formulating the policy the Committee shall ensure that —

- a) The level and composition of remuneration is reasonable and sufficient to attract, retain and motivate directors of the quality required to run the company successfully;
- b) Relationship of remuneration to performance is clear and meets appropriate performance benchmarks; and
- c) Remuneration to directors, key managerial personnel and senior management involves a balance between fixed and incentive pay reflecting short and long-term performance objectives appropriate to the working of the company and its goals:

In view of the above, a policy is formulated and established for nomination and remuneration of Directors, key managerial personnel and senior management of the Company.

1. PURPOSE

This Policy on nomination and remuneration (the "Policy") describes the process through which candidates for possible inclusion in the Company's recommended slate of director, key managerial personnel and senior management (the "Candidates") are selected. PART B – REMUNERATION POLICY

9. EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR REMUNERATION

Main principles

The Remuneration and Nomination Committee's reward policy reflects its obligation to align executive directors' remuneration with shareholders' interests and to engage appropriately qualified executive talent for the benefit of the group. The nomination and remuneration committee shall consider following criteria before recommending the remuneration of executive directors:

- Ø Reward reflects the competitive global market in which the company operates.
- Ø Individual reward should be linked to performance criteria.
- Ø Executives should be rewarded for both financial and non-financial performance.

Elements of Remuneration

The executive directors' total remuneration consists of the following:

- Ø Salary - each executive director receives a fixed sum payable monthly in cash.
- Ø Perquisites and allowances, if deem fit by remuneration committee
- Ø other benefits - executive directors are eligible to participate in superannuation schemes and such other benefits as may be prescribed the nomination and remuneration committee.

Overall Director Remuneration

Overall managerial remuneration shall not exceed 11% of net profit of the Company for a particular financial year. No remuneration (except sitting fees) shall be paid to any director of the company unless it is recommended to the board by remuneration committee of the Company and other applicable statutory provisions are complied with.

10. NON-EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR REMUNERATION

No remuneration shall be paid to non executive directors except sitting fees in the manner and as per the terms as approved by board of directors of the Company. The Nomination and remuneration Committee, if deem fit, may recommend to the board remuneration to non executive directors not exceeding 1% of net profit of the Company.

11. FORMS OF REMUNERATION

Fixed Remuneration

The Board in consultation with the Nomination & Remuneration Committee will from time to time determine the fixed remuneration level for all Directors, key managerial personnel and senior management. For other employees, respective department heads, under an intimation to Human Resource Department, are allowed to fix such remuneration as they deem fit. Such remuneration levels will be determined according to industry standards, relevant laws and regulations, labour market conditions and scale of Company's business relating to the position. The fixed remuneration will reflect the core performance requirements and expectations of the Company.

Performance based Remuneration

In addition to fixed remuneration, the Company may implement a system of bonuses and incentives designed to create a strong relationship between performance and remuneration. Performance based remuneration will be linked to specific performance targets which will disclosed to relevant employees regularly.

12. EMPLOYEE ENTITLEMENTS

The Company will comply with all legal and industrial obligations in determining the appropriate entitlement to long service, annual, personal and parental leave.

13. ROLE OF THE NOMINATION AND REMUNERATION COMMITTEE:

The Committee will perform based on the following:

To identify the persons, who are qualified to become Directors of the Company or who may be appointed in Senior Management,

To recommend to the Board, appointment and removal of the Director[s] and evaluation of each Director's performance,

To formulate criteria for determining qualifications, positive attributes and independence of a Director,

To review on annual basis the compensation to the Non-Executive Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management Personnel and recommend to the Board the remuneration and incentive payable to each of them,

Ensure that level and composition of remuneration is reasonable and sufficient, its relationship with performance is clear and meets appropriate performance benchmarks,

To develop and review the succession plan for the Board.

Membership, Chairman and Secretary:

The Committee shall consist of a minimum 3 Non-Executive Directors, majority of them shall be Independent Directors,

The presence of minimum two members of the Committee shall constitute a valid quorum,

The Chairman of the Committee shall always be an Independent Director,

In the absence of the Chairman, the members of the Committee present at the meeting shall choose one amongst them to be the Chairman for that meeting,

The Company Secretary of the Company shall act as the Secretary to the Committee.

Duties for Nominations:

The duties of the Committee in relation to nomination matters include:

Ensuring that there is an appropriate induction in place for new Directors and members of Senior Management Personnel and reviewing its effectiveness,

Ensuring that on appointment to the Board, Non-Executive Directors receive a formal letter of appointment in accordance with the provisions of Companies Act, 2013 and the Listing Agreement,

Determining the appropriate size, diversity and composition of the Board, iv. Selecting new Directors for appointment on the Board in a transparent manner,

Reviewing succession of the Board and Senior Management Personnel on regular interval,

Reviewing the performance of the Board and Senior Management Personnel to achieve the Company's business goals.

Duties for Remuneration:

The duties of the Committee in relation to remuneration matters shall include: i. To ensure that the remuneration is reasonably and sufficiently paid in order to attract, retain and motivate the Board members, based on the performance of the Company and such other factors as the Committee shall deem appropriate,

To review and recommend the remuneration of Key Managerial / Senior Management Personnel maintaining a balance between fixed and incentive pay based on the working of the Company,

To recommend to the Board, all remuneration, in whatever form, payable to senior management

14. REVIEW

The Nomination & Remuneration Committee is responsible for the monitoring, implementation and review of this policy. The Nomination & Remuneration Committee will provide recommendations to the Board as to how to effectively structure and facilitate a remuneration strategy, which will meet the needs of the Company.

This Policy is intended to provide a set of flexible guidelines for the effective functioning of the Company's nominations process for directors, KMPs and senior management. The Committee intends to review this Policy at least annually and anticipates that modifications may be necessary from time to time as the Company's needs and circumstances evolve, and as applicable legal or listing agreement change. The Committee may modify or amend this Policy at any time without advance notice.
